Dear Ms. Andrea Durso,

Lab Products, Inc. is pleased to present you with the 2016 Lab Products Animal Technician Travel Award for AALAS District 4. We had a large number of nominations with truly exceptional nomination letters. Your selection for this Award recognizes your hard work and dedication to the field of Laboratory Animal Science.

The Award consists of:

- Round trip airfare to Charlotte, North Carolina. Departing from an airport near you on Sunday, October 30, 2016 and returning on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 2, 2016.
- Hotel accommodations for 3 nights.
- Registration for the 2016 AALAS Meeting.
- A special dinner on Tuesday evening honoring the 2016 Award Recipients from each of the 8 AALAS Districts and Canada
- $350.00 cash to cover incidentals while attending the meeting.
- A plaque recognizing your award.

In return, we ask you to confirm that your employer approves of your attending the 2016 AALAS National Meeting and that you agree to:

- Attend the Tuesday evening Special Dinner for formal recognition and presentation of the Award.
- During the coming year, present a talk at a Branch or District meeting on your “AALAS Annual Meeting Experience” as a way of encouraging other animal technicians to become active in AALAS (or CALAS) and its branches.
- Serve on the Lab Products Animal Technician Award Selection Committee for 2017. You and the 8 other recipients of the 2016 Award will serve on the committee charged with selecting the recipients for this award in 2017.
- Provide us with a high quality head and shoulders digital photo of you as soon as possible (this can be emailed to tdarby@labproductsinc.com).

We are looking forward to meeting you in Charlotte, NC and sharing the educational and social experience of interacting with nearly 5,000 other members of the laboratory animal science community.

Sincerely,
