

Dr. Montgomery Rice Participates in Joint Civilian Orientation Conference

From August 6-12, 2017, Morehouse School of Medicine President and Dean Dr. Valerie Montgomery Rice participated in the Department of Defense's 87th Joint Civilian Orientation Conference (JCOC 87).

Dr. Montgomery Rice was invited by LT Juan Carlos Avila and was assigned to Team Coast Guard. The JCOC Program offers unprecedented engagement with senior Department of Defense officials and service members, and military training exercises with Special Operations Forces, aircraft simulation training, and launch boat demonstrations.
