Champions of Health Awards

are earned by a group of community leaders and wellness advocates who have demonstrated expertise and passion for promoting health information and service.

They are experts and enthusiasts in health modalities ranging from nutrition and medicine to behavioral health and fitness.

Champions are selected and announced at the Annual THBN Awards Gala and work throughout the year to educate all members of the Metro-Atlanta community on key health issues.

The Champions of Health Mission Statement includes two key statements that explain why investing in community health recognition and education is critical:

- 1) THBN Champions of Health inspire, mentor, train, and support the next generation of global health leaders.
- 2) THBN programming promotes the work of the Champions of Health in an unbiased media environment designed to offer the public cutting edge information and truth.

“Our goal is to reveal the truth, while placing an enthusiastic and diverse face on community health.”

-- THBN CEO, Dr. Debbie Wallace

Dr. Louis Sullivan to Receive Champions of Health “Icons of Health” Award

Soledad O'Brien to Receive Champions of Health "Voices of Truth" Award

The Champions of Health Role

Champions receive a built-in forum to further promote their health initiatives and messages of wellness with THBN featured programming; at THBN events and workshops; and while giving back to communities across Atlanta – especially those that are disadvantaged and underserved.

During their service, Champions of Health recognize and assist in the selection process for the Youth Champions of Health, honoring students who demonstrate outstanding effort, progress and impact in such areas as the Childhood Obesity Prevention Campaign .

Champions are honored as THBN featured writers and benefit from ongoing THBN local public relations efforts.
