

Dr. Holden Participates in American Psychological Association's Leadership Institute for Women in Psychology

Dr. Kisha Holden recently participated in the American Psychological Association's \(APA\) Leadership Institute for Women in Psychology \(LIWP\), which was held November 1-3, 2016, in Washington, D.C. This prestigious program has a nationally competitive selection process and Dr. Holden was one of approximately 35 professional women in the field of Psychology selected to participate. The mission of the APA LIWP is to prepare, support and empower women psychologists as leaders to promote positive changes in institutional, organizational and practice settings as well as APA governance, and increase the diversity, number and effectiveness of women psychologists as leaders. A major focus of the Institute is to ensure that leadership training opportunities are available for mid-career and senior women psychologists in all of their diversities.
