

Morehouse School of Medicine Research Centers in Minority Institutions (RCMI) R-Center Needs Assessment Survey

RCMI R-Center Colleagues:

We invite you to complete The Morehouse School of Medicine Research Centers in Minority Institutions (RCMI) R-Center Needs Assessment Survey.

The purpose of this survey is to gather information about the RCMI-R-CENTER programs, its resource utilization and how investigators and staff are leveraging these resources to expand their research projects. Your opinions and candid comments are important and extremely valuable to us. The survey results will serve as a baseline for evaluation, monitoring and for ongoing quality and program improvement. Your responses and comments are confidential. We are not collecting personal identifiers or IP addresses. We will only report aggregate findings. This survey should take approximately 10-15 minutes to complete. Please click the link below to take the survey.
