

Dr. Herbert-Carter Named 2018-20 ARC-PA Commissioner

The Accreditation Review Commission on Education for the Physician Assistant (ARC-PA) welcomes Dr. Janice Herbert-Carter as a commissioner for the term of January 1, 2018, through December 31, 2020. In this new role, Dr. Herbert-Carter will represent the American Medical Association (AMA) as she reviews Physician Assistant Programs across the country seeking provisional-accreditation or continued accreditation. Dr. Herbert-Carter will conduct numerous site visits and provide comments and recommendations to the ARC-PA on a program's accreditation status. As Dr. Herbert-Carter steps into this new arena to push Physician Assistant education forward, we applaud her on this phenomenal honor of being named a commissioner.
