

MOREHOUSE

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Applicant Housing Form

The Applicant Housing Program is designed to enhance the interview experience of applicants by providing free housing with medical students. This allows the applicant to experience the medical school from the view of a current student and to gain added insight into Morehouse School of Medicine. Housing is limited to one night only unless there are extreme circumstances. Housing is subject to availability of medical students, with a minimum of two-week notice prior to the date of your arrival. Interviewee is responsible for their transportation to and from the place they are staying.

*Please be aware that students may be busy studying during the applicant's visit and prepare accordingly. *
