Morehouse College

OVERVIEW

Morehouse School of Medicine, located in Atlanta, Georgia, was founded in 1975 as the Medical Education Program at Morehouse College. In 1981, Morehouse School of Medicine became an independently chartered institution. Morehouse School of Medicine is among the nation's leading educators of primary-care physicians and was recently recognized as the top institution among U.S. medical schools for its social mission. Morehouse School of Medicine faculty and alumni are noted in their fields for excellence in teaching, research, and public policy. Morehouse School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education, Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education, Council on Education for Public Health, Liaison Committee on Medical Education, and Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

MISSION

We exist to:

- Improve the health and well-being of individuals and communities.
- Increase the diversity of the health professional and scientific workforce.
- Address primary health care through programs in education, research, and service.

with emphasis on people of color and the underserved urban and rural populations in Georgia, the nation, and the world.

VISION

Leading the creation and advancement of health equity

HONORABLE CALVIN SMYRE

STATE REPRESENTATIVE, GEORGIA GENERAL ASSEMBLY
135TH DISTRICT, CHAIR,
HOUSE MINORITY CAUCUS

State Representative Calvin Smyre, business executive, state legislator, community and national leader, earned his B.S. degree from Fort Valley State University, majoring in Business Administration, with a minor in accounting.

His career path has taken him from being a community organizer and director of the “War on Poverty” program in Columbus, Georgia, to his current positions as executive vice president of Corporate External Affairs at Synovus and president of the Synovus Foundation. He also serves on the company’s eight-member Corporate Executive Group. Synovus (NYSE: “SNV”) is a diversified financial services holding company with over $32 billion in assets based in Columbus, Georgia. Synovus provides integrated financial services including banking, financial management, insurance, mortgage and leasing services through 39 banks and other Synovus offices in Georgia, Alabama, South Carolina, Florida and Tennessee; and electronic payment processing through an 81 percent stake in TSYS (NYSE: “TSS”), the world’s largest third-party processor of international payments. Synovus has been named one of “The 100 Best Companies To Work For” in America by FORTUNE magazine and has been recognized in its Hall of Fame for consecutive appearances on the list since its inception in 1998. In 2004, Synovus was also named as one of “America’s Most Admired Companies.”

Rep. Smyre was elected to the Georgia House of Representatives in 1974 as its youngest member at 26 years of age. As a 44-year legislative veteran and one of the “Deans of the House,” he serves on the most important committees of the House. In the state’s budgetary process, he serves on the Appropriations Committee, which is responsible for dividing up the $26 billion state budget. He is also a member of the powerful calendar-setting Rules Committee, as well as chairman of the House Minority Caucus. Rep. Smyre has previously served as chairman of the House Rules Committee and University System of Georgia Committee, which has oversight responsibility for the state’s 34 public colleges and universities, from 1993-1999, and he served as chairman of the House Industrial Relations Committee from 1991 to July 1993.

Rep. Smyre has a distinguished legislative record, which includes authoring the legislation making Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.’s birthday a state holiday and legislation creating the historic Georgia Dome, home of the Atlanta Falcons. He was also instrumental in co-sponsoring the historic legislation (House Bill 16) creating a new Georgia State Flag.

In 1979, he was elected by his peers as chairman of the Georgia Legislative Black Caucus and in 1982 was elected president of the Georgia Association of Black Elected Officials. In 1983, he was appointed assistant administrative floor leader by Governor Joe Frank Harris, and in 1986, in an historic move, Governor Harris appointed him administrative floor leader, thus becoming the first African-American in history to hold this position. In 1985, he was elected to the Democratic National Committee, also becoming the first African-American elected official from Georgia to serve in this post.

Nationally, he is president of the National Black Caucus of State Legislators, a member of the Assembly on State Issues of the National Conference of State Legislators, and he also serves as a Synovus representation on the Financial Services Roundtable; all three headquartered in Washington, D.C. Rep. Smyre has lectured at a number of colleges and universities and has received over 200 local, state and national honors and awards. In 1980, he was selected by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution as one of the “Ten Best Legislators” in the state and in 1985 and 2005, he was selected by his peers as the “National Legislator of the Year”. He has been honored twice as “Citizen of the Year” in his hometown of Columbus.

Rep. Smyre was instrumental in the construction of the $62 million Columbus RiverCenter and served as chairman of the six-member Project Development Team from July 1994 to April 2001 to build the facility. He also served as RiverCenter board chairman from September 2002 until May 2004. He served as president of the Liberty Theatre Cultural Center, Inc. from 1994 until December 2003. He is a member of the Board of Trustees of: the Morehouse School of Medicine; the Medical College of Georgia Foundation; Columbus State University Foundation; the Columbus Museum; and the Fort Valley State University Foundation, where he serves as chairman. He is also a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity; SO-C-837 Club; Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity; the Boy Scouts of America; and a life member of the NAACP and SCLC. Rep. Smyre is a former member of the Board of Trustees of the Columbus Medical Center, the University of Georgia Foundation, the Jack D. Hughston Hospital Medicine Foundation and the House of Representatives Health Committee, where he served for 12 years. He is also former chairman of the Columbus Metro Urban League and former national president of the Fort Valley State University National Alumni Association.

In 1976, Rep. Smyre served as a southern advisor to the Carter/Mondale campaign and in 1980 served as deputy campaign director for Carter/Mondale in Kentucky. He served as a senior advisor in the campaigns of Governor Joe Frank Harris (1982 and 1986) and Governor Zell Miller (1990 and 1994). In 1988 and 1990, he served as campaign director of the Georgia Democratic Party Unified Campaign Committee; and in 1992 and 1996, he chaired the Georgia Democratic Party Coordinated Campaign. In 1992 and 1996, Rep. Smyre served as a co-chairman of the Clinton/Gore Campaign in Georgia. In 1998, he served on the Finance Committee of the Barnes for Governor Campaign and also served as vice chairman of the Democratic Party Coordinated Campaign. In 2000, Rep. Smyre served again as chairman of the Georgia Democratic Party Coordinated Campaign, vice chair of the Gore 2000 Campaign Georgia Committee and as an advisor to the vice president’s campaign. In a historic move, Governor Roy Barnes named Rep. Smyre as the chairman of the Democratic Party of Georgia in September, 2001, thus becoming the first African-American to chair the State Party. Rep. Smyre has been selected as a delegate to attend seven Democratic National Conventions.

Born in Columbus, Georgia, Rep. Smyre is a life-long member of Ward Chapel A.M.E. Church in Columbus and serves as a member of the Board of Trustees.

MASTER OF PUBLIC HEALTH

INTERNATIONAL DECLARATION OF HEALTH RIGHTS

HEALTH REQUIRES PEACEFUL AND EQUITABLE DEVELOPMENT AND COLLABORATION OF ALL PEOPLES

The enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of health is one of the fundamental rights of every human being. It is not a privilege for those with power, money, or social standing.

Health is more than the absence of disease, but includes prevention of illness, development of individual potential, a positive sense of physical, mental, and social well-being.

Health care should be based on dialogue and collaboration between citizens, professions, communities, and policy makers. Health service should be affordable, accessible, effective, efficient, and convenient.

Health begins with healthy development of the child and a positive family environment.

Health must be sustained by the active role of men and women in health and development. The role of women and their welfare must be recognized and addressed.

Health care for the elderly should preserve dignity, respect, and concern for a sustainable environment with balanced human populations growth and preservation of cultural diversity.

Health depends on availability to people of basic elements: Food, safe water, housing, education, productive employment, protection from pollution, and prevention of social alienation.

Health depends on protection from exploitation without distinction of race, religion, political belief, economic or social condition.

A SCIENTIST'S PLEDGE

I accept this opportunity to follow the difficult and rewarding path of biomedical science and clinical research.

I will endeavor to honor all those who have contributed to this opportunity by always working to the utmost of my abilities and by increasing those abilities when possible.

I will strive to advance fundamental knowledge about all living things.

I pledge to use my energy, intellect and education to enhance the lives of all mankind, understanding that often the greatest strides are made through efforts to assist the dispossessed and underprivileged in our world.

I will carefully consider and remain mindful of the ethical implications of my work.

I will never use my gifts and skills to intentionally harm any individual, or group.

In planning and carrying out my work, I will treat this planet and all its life forms with honor and respect.

I will honor and respect the efforts of my teachers, taking great care always to give credit where credit is due and always humbly understanding that all that I see, I see by standing on the shoulders of the many scientists who have gone before me.

I will also honor and respect my students and all who rely on that which have learned, striving to truthfully and openly disclose all my methods, findings, and conclusions.

So long as I adhere to this pledge, may I have continued success in the field of biomedical science and clinical research.

PHYSICIAN ASSISTANT PROFESSIONAL OATH

PHYSICIAN ASSISTANT PROFESSIONAL OATH I PLEDGE TO PERFORM THE FOLLOWING DUTIES WITH HONESTY AND DEDICATION:

I will hold as my primary responsibility the health, safety, welfare and dignity of all human beings.

I will uphold the tenets of patient autonomy, beneficence, nonmaleficence and justice.

I will recognize and promote the value of diversity.

I will treat equally all persons who seek my care.

I will hold in confidence the information shared in the course of practicing medicine.

I will assess my personal capabilities and limitations, striving always to improve my medical practice.

I will actively seek to expand my knowledge and skills, keeping abreast of advances in medicine.

I will work with other members of the health care team to provide compassionate and effective care of patients.

I will use my knowledge and experience to contribute to an improved community.

I will respect my professional relationship with the physician.

I will share and expand knowledge within the profession.

These duties are pledged with sincerity and upon my honor.

ACADEMIC SYMBOLS

The banner and flag show the Morehouse School of Medicine logo. The original logo was designed in 1976 by artists David and Delores Cato of D'Cato of Atlanta, Georgia. The mace is carried by the Mace Bearer in the procession and is the medieval symbol of the office and the authority of the president. The head is made from sterling silver and gold, and the shaft carved from Australian Rosewood. Morehouse School of Medicine's original logo forms the head. The names of the presidents of the institution will be carved in the silver sleeves of the shaft, depicting the continuity of institutional leadership over the years. The mace was designed and crafted by Mr. Richard Mafong of Georgia State University and presented as a gift to the school by Dr. and Mrs. Theodore P. Ritota of South Orange, New Jersey.

The academic dress worn by those in the procession includes the cap, gown, and hood. The cap, made of black serve or broadcloth, is worn by holders of all degrees, but the cap of the doctor may be of velvet. Gowns are usually black, but the color is determined by the university from which the highest degree was obtained. The doctor's gown is round, has bell sleeves, and is faced down in front and barred on the sleeves with black velvet. Doctors' hoods are in the full shape with a rounded base. Their hoods are four-feet long and have a five-inch silk, satin, or velvet border on the outside. The border represents the faculty from which the wearer has received his/her degree. The color of the border representing medicine is green. Throughout the United States, there has not been a change in the standard colors which represent the disciplines. The color facing the hood, whether it is black or colored, indicates the following:

Kelly Green:	Medicine
Science Gold:	Science
Dark Blue:	Philosophy
Lilac:	Dentistry
Scarlet:	Theology
Purple:	Law
Olive:	Pharmacy
Lemon:	Library Science
Light Blue:	Education
Drab:	Business
Citron:	Social Work Public
Salmon Pink:	Health
Sage Green:	Physician Assistant

Each hood is lined with silk in colors representative of the institution granting the degree. The colors for Morehouse School of Medicine are blue and ivory.

“THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER”

FRANCIS SCOTT KEY

O say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?
On the shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines in the stream:
'Tis the star-spangled banner, O! long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

“LIFT EVERY VOICE AND SING”

JAMES WELDON JOHNSON

Lift Every voice and sing
‘Til the earth and Heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of liberty,
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the listening skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us;
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun
Of our new day begun,
Let us march on ‘til victory is won.
